The New Testament with "Lectio Divina" invites readers to reflect on the individual stories and chapters of the New Testament, while being led to prayer through meditation on those biblical passages. Lectio divina, the reflective reading of scripture, has long been a popular devotional practice in the Church from the earliest centuries. It consists of four steps: Read: A slow and thoughtful reading of a passage from the Bible Reflect: A time of reflection and thinking about the meaning of that text to me as a reader Pray: A period of prayer to God to bring the message or wisdom of the text to fruit in myself Act: A decision on what I should do as a result Text in two colors. Ideal for personal and group reflection.
