tension and direct contradiction—that characterize attempts by Islamic political parties to Islamize the Indonesian legal system.

~~Challenging the Secular State: The Islamization of Law in ...~~

Challenging the Secular State examines Muslim efforts to incorporate shari ' a (religious law) into modern Indonesia ' s legal system from the time of independence in 1945 to the present. The author argues that attempts to formally implement shari ' a in Indonesia, the world ' s most populous Muslim state, have always been marked by tensions between the political aspirations of proponents and opponents of shari ' a and by resistance from the national government.
