If the above examples are "crimes" through commission, then there are also crimes of omission, or of cheating by not doing something. A crime of omission is when you fail to fulfill a responsibility. In Magic, all players in a game have a responsibility to maintain the game state; it is up to every player to ensure that nothing illegal happens. Often both players accidentally fail to do this, and when this happens a judge has to step in to figure out a way to correct the
