The Ducati 800 Supersport is a bike for people who just don't want, or think they need a lot of power. Maybe it's a good choice for someone just stepping up to the big-bore class and at a reasonably competitive price, but most of all it's a bike that will improve your riding skills. As I said before you need to be smooth and precise with this bike, for this it will reward you immensely. Play ...

The Superleggera V4 project is the most advanced bike that Ducati has ever put into production. Each screw, each component, is weighed and controlled to allow the best weight / power ratio. And the aesthetic details are no exception, for which the usual stylistic licenses cannot obviously be taken. "If the task of an industrial designer is to bring out the beauty of technology, with the ...

This stunning, blacked-out 900 SS is called 'Livia Special,' and is named after the owner's daughter. It comes from Laurent Kesteloot and Pascal Demeulemeester, who are veterans of the European Sultans of Sprint drag challenge and run the Belgian workshop KD Motorcycles. (No prizes for guessing how they chose their business name.)
