The Gates of Paradise situated in the Baptistery are a copy of the originals, substituted in 1990 to preserve the panels after over five hundred years of exposure and damage. To protect the original panels for the future, the panels are being restored and kept in a dry environment in the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo , the museum of the Duomo's art and sculpture.

Gates of Paradise is the final novel in Melissa de la Cruz's original Blue Bloods series. There have been so many twists and turns, crosses and double crosses in the series so far that I've been dying to get my hands on this book to finally find out what would happen in the end. The book felt like a finale right from the start.

Lorenzo Ghiberti, born Lorenzo di Bartolo, was a Florentine Italian artist of the Early Renaissance best known as the creator of the bronze doors of the Florence Baptistery, called by Michelangelo the Gates of Paradise. Trained as a goldsmith and sculptor, he established an important workshop for sculpture in metal. His book of Commentarii contains important writing on art, as well as what may be the earliest surviving autobiography by any artist.
