When given the opportunity to move back to town with a new name and look, Helen realizes this is the perfect time to enact her revenge on Lauren Wood. Helen's revenge will be so utterly thorough that Lauren will be ruined forever, and Helen relishes the thought. As Helen slowly realizes, however, some parts of revenge are remarkably easy, while others are much more complicated. Helen's hatred of Lauren has driven her for the past three years; does Helen even know who she herself is anymore?
