Editions of Once Is Not Enough by Jacqueline Susann

Jacqueline Susann's Once Is Not Enough (1975) is a trashy, at times campy melodrama about the rich and famous in Hollywood and (mostly) New York City. The claim that "any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely coincidental" is patently absurd in this case, as most of the characters are all too obviously based on real people, all living when the film came out.
