OTTO RANK - Ship

Otto Rank represents one of those early psychoanalytic theoreticians whose transpersonal reflections are perhaps second only to those of Carl Jung in scope and importance. Rank remains one of the most unknown, and little read, of the early Freudians. Often described as brilliant yet neglected, Rank is in part responsible for his own anonymity.

Art and Artist: Creative Urge and Personality Development ...

Rank concluded his long investigation of art with Art and Artist (1932a)— perhaps his magnum opus. His central theme was that although art, like religion, is to be understood as an expression of man's will to immortality, in art this will is retained in its original individualistic, presocial, prereligious "narcissistic" form.
