Stage hypnotism is very different to therapeutic hypnosis, but both revolve around the same principles. While hypnosis for therapy purposes is intended to be gradual and relaxing, stage hypnotism involves very speedy inductions (people are 'put under' in to a trance within seconds). This begs the question, is it real and how is it done?

Stage hypnosis is hypnosis performed in front of an audience for the purposes of entertainment, usually in a theatre or club. A modern stage hypnosis performance typically delivers a comedic show rather than simply a demonstration to impress an audience with powers of persuasion. Apparent effects of amnesia, mood altering and hallucination may be demonstrated in a normal presentation. Stage hypnosis performances often encourage audience members to look further into the benefits of hypnotism. The
