Rachel Okoye is a highly successful business woman in her late thirties. Despite her achievements, she is dealing with a vacuum in her life. A series of bad luck with men and love have left her feeling like a puzzle missing its final piece. Realizing she was wrong to think a husband would automatically fall in place after accumulating material possessions, Rachel finds herself getting desperate for a husband and becoming less satisfied with life in the process. Mine Will Come Tomorrow shines some light on the pressures and struggles that come with finding love as an older woman. Dealing with the loss of a loved one, investing in men who turn up to be living secret lives, are non-committers or like we say on the streets, turn out to be scum, are all occurring themes in the story.
