Unravelled (Heritage of Power Book 4) by Lindsay Buroker, as with her other works, is a thoroughly amusing (my hubby has asked what I'm chuckling at), exciting and imaginative adventure. Her characters and their interactions are believable and lovable (even the dubious ones) and they produce some astute social observations.

Unraveled is a filler book which ties up a lot of loose threads and sets up the finale. So, the book tends to go all over the place but it manages to finish with a great climax. I found it to be average and would rate it on par with the first book in the series - Dragon Storm. flag 5 likes · Like · see review

" The front half of the cult book does have the history, bylaws, and ceremonies for the Brotherhood of the Dragon, but it ' s the back half that ' s more interesting. It ' s written in Middle Dragon Script and was copied from a much older version of the book, I believe—maybe the original from over three thousand years ago when the cult was founded.
