How to Write a Personal Statement will revolutionise the way you think about your university application. Written in collaboration with teachers, private tutors, and Cambridge University admissions staff, this book provides the ultimate guide to mastering your university personal statement. Our simple yet highly effective personal statement template, the 'five step formula', will ensure you achieve your highest potential in your UCAS application. Whilst this book concentrates on the UCAS personal statement and UK university applications, the formula will be equally as effective when applying for most US and other international universities. Personal Statement Examples The most unique aspect of this book is the way in which it presents real personal statement examples. The example personal statements presented here allowed the students that wrote them to achieve offers from some of the world's best universities, including Cambridge, UCL, and LSE. However, this does not simply present example statements, but it critically analyses them, showing exactly what each student did well, and what each student failed to do. Through the combination of personal statement structure and real student examples, we believe this book offers a quick and easy guide to personal statement writing. Personal Statement Template The '5 Step Formula' template in this book is based around the 5 paragraphs every personal statement should have in order to be successful. Each of these paragraphs is covered in a different chapter of the book, with chapter 9 offering a summary of the '5 Step Formula' to ensure you are using the best personal statement structure. About the Author Jonty Purvis is a Cambridge University graduate, bestselling education author, and full-time private tutor. After working with students for many years, he established a very simple personal statement structure that saw his students achieve offers from top universities every single time. He then collaborated with teachers and admissions tutors from Cambridge to publish this book, aiming to provide students with the best UCAS personal statement template on the market. This book covers the following personal statement tips: How to start a personal statement How to structure a personal statement Personal statement conclusions How to write a personal statement for masters Medicine personal statement template Medicine personal statement examples Geography personal statement examples Economics personal statement examples UCAS personal statement advice And much more! (Bianca Khor) if you have any recommendations on a suitable charity organisation to support. About the Book Who says writing a personal statement must be stressful? Everyone definitely has a story to tell - whether it is about how they first developed an interest in science, what has continued to fuel their excitement for this subject, or what inspired them to read a STEM degree. I, essentially, would like to help you convey that passion in your personal statement. In this book, you'll be introduced to various tips and tricks which can help you stand out as an applicant within 4,000 characters. The whole idea is to show you how simple (and fun!) the writing process can be. What This Book Covers How to Write a Winning UCAS Personal Statement for STEM Subjects offers an easy step-by-step guide to help you persuade the admissions tutors that you are a perfect match for the university's STEM-related course. By the end of this book, you should hopefully have developed an idea on how to: Make an unforgettable entrance to your personal statement Structure your personal statement in a clear and coherent manner Make your content stand out further End your personal statement on a high note But wait, there's more! Each chapter of this book is loaded with examples of personal statements written by successful students as part of their application to top Russell Group universities, such as the University of Oxford, Imperial College London, University College London, and the University of Edinburgh. Meanwhile, to not provide any more spoilers - if you enjoy reading comics, you're in for a good treat! The personal statement can be the most challenging section on the UCAS application form. This title will guide applicants through the process of putting together a great personal statement, that sensibly conveys their skills and that will help them to win a place at the university of their choice.

This friendly and accessible workbook takes you through a series of activities that will help you to gather information about your self and condense it into the format required to complete your UCAS personal statement for university. You will use a seven step process that will build your confidence and help you create a compelling personal statement. Reading the book is like being in a coaching session with the author; the tone is light and supportive, and you will be carried along through specific exercises that culminate in the completion of a really effective Personal Statement. * Collect it - identify your positive traits, skills, abilities and accomplishments and feel confident about promoting yourself on paper. * Expand it - create a 'degree specification profile' to see what the departments are looking for with respect to the courses that interest you. * Prove it - evidence of your skills by listing examples from your life, inside and outside education. Think about what you are offering in terms of strengths and what needs further development. * Draft it - note down your findings so far and start thinking about how to structure them. * Build it - begin building the structure of your statement and formulate your sentences. * Review it - read hints about structure, spelling, grammar, punctuation and formatting, plus guidance on receiving feedback. * Submit it - a last chance for reflection, re-jigging, and refining; and for reassurance before you submit your statement!

Writing an amazing college admission essay is easier than you think! So you're a high school senior given the task of writing a 650-word personal statement for your college application. Do you tell the story of your life, or a story from your life? Do you choose a single moment? If so, which one? The options seem endless. Lucky for you, they're not. College counselor Ethan Sawyer (aka The College Essay Guy) will show you that there are only four (really, four!) types of college admission essays. And all you have to do to figure out which type is best for you is answer two simple questions: 1. Have you experienced significant challenges in your life? 2. Do you know what you want to be or do in the future? With these questions providing the building blocks for your essay, Sawyer guides you through the rest of the process, from choosing a structure to revising your essay, and answers the big questions that have probably been keeping you up at night: How do I brag in a way that doesn't sound like bragging? and How do I make my essay, like, deep? Packed with tips, tricks, exercises, and sample essays from real students who got into their dream schools, College Essay Essentials is the only college essay guide to make this complicated
